SOUL, SOULICAL, SOULLESS:

soul noun {5315 nephesh} [5590 psuchee] the psyche; the soul is the center of the emotional attributes; the soul of the flesh is in the blood; read Leviticus 17:11; the inhalation of breath brings oxygen to the blood, which brings life to the flesh; the soul sustains life, but is not life itself; Yah Veh puffed (exsouled) into the nostrils of Adam; and Adam became a living soul; see puff; read Genesis 2:7; all live beings have souls; note: most versions render nephesh into more than forty different words, and psuchee into seven; only soul is correct; cp spirit.

The Holy Spirit is that essence of triune Elohim who participated in the creation, and Who conceived the flesh body of Elohim, Yah Shua the Messiah; the Holy Spirit guides the spiritually unborn to the Messiah; read Yahn 3:1–8; the Holy Spirit guides the spiritually born into all truth; the Holy Spirit is the "another Paraclete" of the Messiahist; read Yahn 15:26, 16:7–11; the Holy Spirit endues Messiahists with the spirituals of energies, ministries, and charismata; read 1 Corinthians 12:1–11; the King James Version sometimes translates Holy Spirit as Holy Ghost; in Germanic languages, their word for spirit is rooted in our word for ghost; in Latin languages, their word for spirit is rooted in our word for spirit; in modern day English, ghost is a dead spirit; Yah Shua became flesh of the living Holy Spirit of Elohim, and thus we translate Holy Spirit throughout; we are well aware that many Spirit-filled Messiahists prefer Holy Ghost – and this is by no means an effort to alter their personal convictions.

the human spirit is the center of the mental attributes; the will, memory, thought, including, but not limited to wisdom, knowledge, prophecy; all Messiahists are born of, and have the Holy Spirit; but not all Messiahists are filled with the Holy Spirit; Messiahists may also have "in Spirit" experiences; read Apocalypse 4:2.
